AIR COMMITTEE VETOES SINGLE AIRLINE IDEA

GROUP SEES NEED OF COMPETITION FOR PROGRESS

Washington, Aug. 18, (P)-Precommittee today rejected the idea of a single airline for all American commercial flying abroad.

2. That the single line plan would allow a small group of individuals to "interfere in policies" of great national interest; and 3. That there is no national security need for it. The "chosen instrument" policy figured in the Hughes hearing when the California plane builder and movie producer accused Senator Brewster (R-Me.), chairman of the Senate War Investigating committee, of calling off the inquiry if Hughes would merge his airline with Pan American Airways and support the one-International-line plan. Any "derogatory" information turned up in the preliminary phase will be handed over to the Tederal Bureau of Investigation or a full-fledged investigation in ases of suspected disloyalty. FBI officials said employes ound to be members of the Communist party, fellow travelers or members of American Fascist movements will be given the right of hearing before a 15-man board of review, along with the right to be represented by counsel. For security reasons, however, they will not be permitted to confront or cross-examine their acusers.

In the second phase of the program, after the initial fingerprint and information forms have been filled out, the review board will set up standards to be used in determining an employe's loyalty and also which organizations shall be considered subversive.
